Central Texas

Today's Objectives

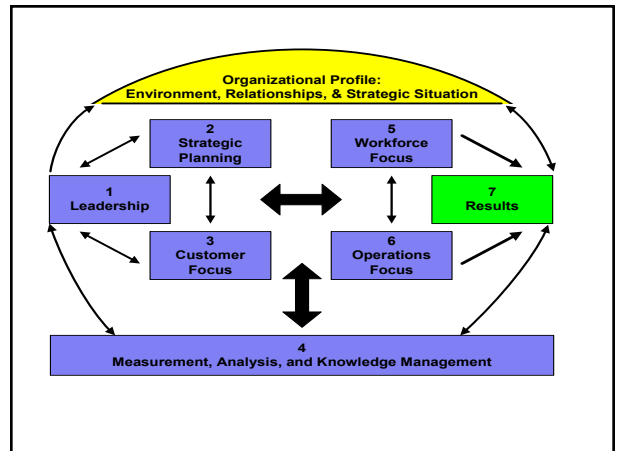

- To provide an awareness of the Baldrige Management Model and how it could be applied to Vocational Rehabilitation organizations and programs
- To share how some VR organizations have already begun implementing the model
- To engage participants by providing tools and developing action plans for adopting the model to best fit your organization's needs.

1999 . . . So What? Why Did We Care?

- Increasing Expectations
 - > Government Performance & Results Act: We must show success in measurable terms, and
 - > Workforce Investment Act: We are now responsible for "increased accountability" and "continuous improvement."
- Decreasing or Stagnant Resources
 - > Resources are not growing as fast as demands are, and
 - > There is increasing competition for limited funds.

Purpose and Core Competencies

- Everything We Do is "People Focused"
- Address Business Needs
- Develop & Connect Job Seekers
- Workforce Preparation and Engagement

Purpose . . .

Creating Futures
by Bringing People and Jobs Together

- Values – CAQTI
- Ethics & Empowerment
- Staff – WoW
- Leadership Model
- Carver Governance
- Results Focused

Foundation & Culture

Processes & Measures

- Defines Work Requirements
- Identifies Common Measures
- Promotes Teamwork
- Shows Us Where Everyone “Fits”
- Encourages Communication
- Streamlines Services
- Aligns Resources

Operational & Longterm Goals . . . Sustainability & Stakeholder Focus

Drives Decisions

Why Baldrige? It’s a “Systems Approach”

Leadership creates vision, values, and high performance expectations that are translated into strategy & action plans through Strategic Planning and Customer & Market Focus. The strategy and action plans guide overall Human Resource Development and Management and drive the development of Process Management to ensure achievement of desired Business Results. Information & Analysis are critical for effective decision making in all aspects of the organization.
